What is OHSA?

Show locally . . . achieve nationally. That's the motto of the newly formed Open Horse Show Association. OHSA's mission is to provide national recognition and quality awards to those that show at local open shows. Since OHSA is a national organization members showing in Florida will be competing with members from New York and Texas and California, and all over the US, yet they won't have to leave their local areas to do so.

Our awards include a custom trophy saddle, custom belt buckles, unique quality awards, and so much more. Our award program is broad and comprehensive.

Who can compete for OHSA points?

All registered and grade horses are eligible to compete for points with OHSA. There is a place for everyone, from western pleasure, to barrel racing, to hunters, to gaited performance. While there are several breed associations that offer an open show program, they are limited to that specific breed and the year end recognition doesn't always include an awards program. At OHSA we're very inclusive and welcome ponies, horses, drafts, mules, and donkeys.

We've made it very easy for our members and for the shows they attend. Shows do not have to apply for approval. Members don't have to pay anything beyond their annual dues. ANY . . . YES, we really mean ANY open, schooling or 4-H horse show qualifies for points under OHSA. Members simply show at the open shows of their choice, complete the Competition Form, have show management verify and sign the form, and send to OHSA! It's really that easy.

Carded Judges

OHSA is providing a carded judges program for open show judges. If you are an open show judge and would like to become a carded OHSA judge, please contact us and we'll get you the information. If you're a show manager, check out our judge's list on our website, we encourage the use of an OHSA carded judge but we do not require it. This program is designed to make your job easier by providing you a listing of qualified open show judges to choose from.

Special!

If you are a member of your local riding, show, 4-H or horse club, join OHSA and your club will receive $5 from each membership! You can't beat our dues, our awards program, and our dedication to ensuring national recognition for our year end award winners!
